Tieftemperaturtechnik May 31 2022 Das vorliegende Buch, dessen ursprünglicher Haupttitel "Erzeugung sehr tiefer Temperaturen" in "Tieftemperaturtechnik" umgeändert worden ist, behandelt nach wie vor im wesentlichen den Temperaturbereich zwischen -100°C und dem absoluten Nullpunkt von -273,15 oe. Es stellt die physikalischen Grundlagen der Tieftem peraturtechnik, die Funktionsweise und die praktische Gestaltung und der Tieftem peraturanlagen sowie die vielseitigen technischen Anwendungen dar. Die I. Auflage, die 1957 als Band VIII des von Rudolf Plank herausgegebenen Handbuchs der Kälte technik erschienen ist, war im Jahre 1967 früher als alle anderen Bände dieses Handbuchs vergriffen. Der weiter bestehenden Nachfrage und dem eigenen Wunsch ent sprechend, hoffte der erste der bei den Verfasser, bald eine neue Auflage bearbeiten zu können. Aber zahlreiche andere Verpflichtungen hielten ihn hiervon ab. Für die erste Auflage standen ihm die Erkenntnisse und Erfahrungen zur Ver fügung, die er sich bei seiner 28jährigen Tätigkeit bei der Linde AG in Höllriegels kreuth bei München erworben hatte. Von 1950 an hingegen konnte er die Weiter entwicklung der Tieftemperaturtechnik nur noch am Rande verfolgen. Außerdem hätten bei seinem nunmehr bis zu 89 Jahren fortgeschrittenen Alter die Kräfte nicht mehr ausgereicht, ein solches Buch allein zu bearbeiten. Einer Bitte des ersten Ver fassers folgend, hat Hermann Linde, Enkel von Carl von Linde, sich bereit erklärt, bei der Bearbeitung der neuen Auflage mitzuwirken. Er war von 1949 bis 1976 bei der Linde AG tätig, dabei längere Zeit als das für die Tieftemperatur- und Verfahrens technik zuständige V orstandsmi tglied.

English in Southeast Asia Apr 17 2021 This book represents a new publishing venture in terms of its range of concerns with regard to English in Southeast Asia. The chapters in the volume reflect the interests and themes of the annual Conferences on English in Southeast Asia held since 1996 among participating universities from nine countries: Malaysia, Singapore, Brunei, Philippines, Australia, Hong Kong, Thailand Indonesia and New Zealand. This is believed to be the first time that such diversity and coverage has been published in a single volume. The three sections of the book cover topics which have been consistently discussed at the conferences during the last ten years. The Varieties section features chapters on phonology, dictionary making, syntax, code-switching and the communicative strategies of English speakers from ASEAN countries. The Literacies section focuses on ICT in English language teaching, Information literacy, bilingual and multilingual issues in Southeast Asia, recent developments in English language teaching and education in Thailand and questions of heritage and identity with respect to English in Malaysia. In the Literatures section the concerns are with new generation writings in English in Malaysia, the literature read by young Filipinos, the use of English in Malaysian newspapers in the context of general elections, the discourses of Asian English newspapers in relation to notions like "globalisation" and "global English" and ASEAN English on Internet websites. As a collection of work by experienced academics engaged in the issues germane to the roles and status of English in Southeast Asia this volume is an excellent resource for university students, university teaching and research staff and university library collections.

Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Brunei Jun 07 2020 The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Brunei presents an overview of significant themes, issues, and challenges pertinent to Brunei Darussalam in the twenty-first century. Multidisciplinary in coverage, the contributions cover topics relating to philology, history, religion, language and literature, geography, international relations, economics, politics and sociocultural traditions. The Handbook is structured in eight parts: Foundations History Faith and Ethnicity Literature Language and Education Economics Material Culture Empowerment Chapters focus on the recent past and contemporary developments in this unique country that has remained a Malay Muslim sultanate, sustaining its religious and traditional heritage encapsulated in the national philosophy, Melayu Islam Beraja (MIB, Malay Islamic Monarchy). The MIB represents the sultanate's three pillars of social, cultural, political and economic sustainability, and the contributors discuss this concept in relation to the notion of 'Malay' or 'Malaydom', the official religion of the nation-state, Islam and monarchy as the essential system of government. This Handbook is an invaluable reference work for students of Asian and Southeast Asian Studies and researchers interested in the smallest Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) state.

Brunei - History, Islam, Society and Contemporary Issues Feb 02 2020 Brunei, although a relatively small state, is disproportionately important on account of its rich resource base. In addition, in recent years the country has endeavoured to play a greater role in regional affairs, especially through ASEAN, holding the chair of the organisation in 2013, and also beyond the region, fostering diplomatic, political, economic and educational ties with many nations. This book presents much new research and new thinking on a wide range of issues concerning Brunei largely drawn from Bruneian academics. Subjects covered include Brunei's rich history - the sultanate formerly had much more extensive territories and was a key player in regional affairs; the country's economy, politics, society and ethnicities; and resource issues and international relations.

Crossing Borders Jun 27 2019 Examines the issues and problems of Asian transmigration of interest to the international academic community as well as administrators, policy makers, government officials and officers of non-government organizations.

Forces for Good Feb 13 2021 "Forces for good develops and explores the concept of 'cosmopolitan militaries'. It examines how governments, militaries and institutions have responded politically, doctrinally and operationally to claims that militaries have a new role in cosmopolitan law enforcement that allows and perhaps even requires the use of force to protect and defend those who are the victims of gross abuse of human rights. The contributors include academics, defence practitioners and serving military officers."--BOOK JACKET.

Southeast Asia and the Rise of China Oct 24 2021 Since the early 1990s and the end of the Cold War, the implications of China's rising power have come to dominate the security agenda of the Asia-Pacific region. This book is the first to comprehensively chart the development of Southeast Asia's relations with the People's Republic of China (PRC) from 1949 to 2010, detailing each of the eleven countries' ties to the PRC and showing how strategic concerns associated with China's regional posture have been a significant factor in shaping their foreign and defence policies. In addition to assessing bilateral ties, the book also examines the institutionalization of relations between the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) and China. The first part of the book covers the period 1949-2010: it examines Southeast Asian responses to the PRC in the context of the ideological and geopolitical rivalry of the Cold War; Southeast Asian countries' policies towards the PRC in first decade of the post-Cold War era; and deepening ties between the ASEAN states and the PRC in the first decade of the twenty-first century. Part Two analyses the evolving relationships between the countries of mainland Southeast Asia - Vietnam, Thailand, Myanmar, Laos and Cambodia - and China. Part Three reviews ties between the states of maritime Southeast Asia - Indonesia, Malaysia, Singapore, the Philippines, Brunei and East Timor - and the PRC. Whilst the primary focus of the book is the security dimension of Southeast Asia-China relations, it also takes full account of political relations and the burgeoning economic ties between the two sides. This book is a timely contribution to the literature on the fast changing geopolitics of the Asia-Pacific region.

Alliance Decision-Making in the South China Sea Sep 22 2021 The combination of rising Chinese power and longstanding territorial disputes has drawn increased attention and threats to the Asia-Pacific region. Five smaller powers contest Beijing's claims; Malaysia, the Philippines, Vietnam, Brunei and Indonesia, with the United States viewed as the most likely counterbalance to coercive behavior towards them. However, only one of these five states - the Philippines -has maintained a guarantee of protection through alliance with the US. What factors have influenced state decisions to form security relationships with Washington, and what does the evolution of these factors portend for future security relationships in the South China Sea? Using research on U.S. policy preferences based on recently declassified material, this book produces conclusions previously inaccessible beyond classified forums. The author surveys recent alliance theory developments to examine relationships between claimant states and the US, explores historical bilateral relations and considers the future of regional security relationships. This book contributes to the fields of security studies, foreign policy and international relations and expands beyond traditional concepts of defense alliances to explore security cooperation along a spectrum from allied to aligned to non-aligned.
