I'm Not Flipping Burgers When I'm 70! Dec 30 2019 Living within an "instant gratification society is a major reason why personal finance is not taught in school or is properly conveyed to children by their parents. This causes many to live for today without planning for tomorrow. Therefore, I'm Not Flipping Burgers When I'm 70 was written to guide the reader through the personal finance process to make up for lost time. It conveys that one must live for today while planning for tomorrow.

Topics include budgeting, money management, the complete home ownership process from finding a realtor to the closing, and principles for investing money. It is designed for the beginner to the intermediate individual, but applies to anyone when it comes to personal finance. The purpose of the book is to educate, without being overpowering, yet leaving the reader feeling responsible to be a decision maker. This easy to read book provides answers that are difficult to find and uses tables, checklists, tips, and visual aids to enhance the learning curve.
