Can't Make You Love Me May 14 2021 You can't make someone love you. But what if they already do? Best friends Ophelia Winesap and Jamie Kendell both work with kids, adore dessert, and will be in-laws once their respective cousins finally tie the knot. Their friendship has one rule: no discussing love, sex, or romance. Self-declared spinster Ophelia doesn't want to waste her energy when love is an illusion and sex isn't nearly as satisfying as a chocolate cupcake. Jamie uses their pact to avoid telling Ophelia he's been pining for her since they met, but things get complicated when a night of platonic bed-sharing leads to Jamie's discovery that Ophelia might be just as attracted to him as he is to the curvy blonde. And when the bride-to-be demands their plus-ones to the wedding, Ophelia finds herself hoping Jamie won't want to bring anyone but her. Friends with benefits is one thing, but a real relationship is so much more. While Jamie's ready to commit, Ophelia's a proud member of the "Never a Bride" club. Jamie knows he can't make Ophelia love him back... but maybe she already does? This is a full-length book in the steamy, funny Never a Bride series (now complete!), about four bridesmaids in a society Santa Barbara wedding. Binge the complete series now! Make Me Choose: an enemies-to-lovers island romance Dec 21 2021 CATCH FLIGHTS, NOT FEELINGS. So says Weston Daly, the playboy backpacker I keep running into around the globe. And I, for one, am sick and tired of tripping over his windblown chestnut hair and that impossible heartbreaker grin every time I leave the country. First Amsterdam. Then Portugal. And now? Aruba. He's Instagram-famous and too gorgeous to trust. I've hated him since the day I met him, but on this trip, I have to play nice, even though he makes it impossible. It's our best friends' wedding...and I'm the official photographer. The more this man smiles through my viewfinder, the harder it is to remember why we've always butted heads. Before I know what I'm doing, paradise takes on a new meaning, and it involves Weston Daly's tongue. His profile might say that he stops for nobody, but when we're together, time itself freezes. When I receive the offer of a lifetime, Weston wants something that throws my whole world into disarray. And worse yet? He plans to make me choose. Fans of Lauren Landish and R.S. Grey will love this lighthearted yet sizzling rom-com! Though it is book 4 of the Bayshore series, this is a standalone romance and you do not have to have read the others to enjoy this book. One-click today to find out just how many choices these lovers have to make!

Depressed People Make Me Sleepy Mar 24 2022 After the death of a loved one, M. J. Rex loses focus, drive, and all hope that she will ever be the person she has always dreamed of becoming. Forced to make a life-altering decision about whether to move on with her own life or die in a figurative sense, she stumbles through life one soap opera at a time. Depressed People Make Me Sleepy follows M. J. through her childhood from about the age of fifteen into adulthood and the beginnings of her career as a forensic psychologist. Her struggle to be the best at what she does, however, places her face-to-face with unresolved matters that if left unresolved could destroy her and the life she has built for herself. Her story is plagued by both highs and lows that will make you laugh and cry aloud. Its colorful language also places the reader front row for every drama that unfolds chapter after chapter. And just when you, the reader, are beginning to share in M. J.'s loss and anger, you are uplifted by the sheer determination and joy created by her ability to triumph despite everything she goes through. M. J. highlights her truth about what it is like to be a psychologist who is stumbling through life, trying to find purpose while working as a treating clinician. While working with both sex offenders and mentally ill patients, she denies her own symptoms refusing to acknowledge she may be more like her patients than she cares to admit. The clash of everything personal and everything professional makes for an intensely thought-provoking read.

Make Me the Moon Sep 17 2021 Do you feel stuck? Feeling like you're on an emotional roller coaster, not knowing how to escape? Are you longing for freedom from the confusion, chaos, and troubling thoughts that can be a result from past abuse? Make Me the Moon will help you find clarity and insight into the emotional baggage and damage that can be caused by sexual abuse. You are encouraged to see past the hurt and pain that has been gripping your soul and to see yourself as you were created to be: loved, free, and blessed. Make Me the Moon will challenge you to begin a journey of healing that confronts lies that have been internally accepted and believed. Lies that tell you you aren't good enough, you don't matter, and you will never feel loved. More than a book, Make Me the Moon is a revealing account of Stacey's journey in finding healing and acceptance through the unconditional love offered by God. Freedom from hurt and pain, confusion, and chaos is possible! The journey to healing begins through the power of God's love. Are you ready to begin your journey?

You Can't Make Me Angry Aug 29 2022 "And acceptance is the answer to all my problems today." You may already know of Dr. Paul's simple yet profound wisdom in the frequently quoted passage from his story in the Big Book of Alcoholics Anonymous. Dr. Paul continues sharing his experience, strength and hope in this, his second book, "You Can't Make Me Angry": "By the time you put this book down, you will be convinced that people and circumstances don't make us angry; we make ourselves angry. People can't make us angry—unless we let them. We alone are responsible for our feelings." "A measure of the effectiveness of communication is the result it produces. If you don't like the results you are getting when communicating with another person, there's a great deal you can do about it. I'm not willing to let any thing or any person put my physical sobriety at risk; why should I put less value on my emotional sobriety?" "For physical sobriety, we had to give up drinking, and for emotional sobriety, we have to give up blaming others. No longer can we say, "You made me angry!" Instead, we must accept personal responsibility for our emotional state. This much responsibility may seem extreme, yet in fact it is a great freedom. Henceforth, no person or situation can upset us if we don't give them or it permission to do so. What could be a greater freedom than that?" "Emotional maturity is like serenity. The first time I felt serene, I wondered what was happening, but I liked the feeling and wanted more. The more I got, the more I wanted. Serenity is addictive."

You Can't Make Me Cry Oct 31 2022 Jayne is alone. A quiet librarian with a passion for books. Her life is simple, satisfying and comfortable- until she is kidnapped. She awakens in a compound where she meets other occupants. Some friendly: Vivien, a classic movie lover and Jayne's first true friend. Robert, an eccentric martial arts master. Enrique, a jaded painter. Some not so friendly. Everyone is lorded over by the mysterious 'man of the house', who Jayne hears of but has yet to meet. She questions why she has been chosen to live among such colorful, different people. Only to be shocked by the answer. She knows she must find a way to escape captivity. However, if the time comes... will she want to leave?

Roving Bill Aspinwall May 02 2020 Ladies' man. Child soldier. War hero. Egotist. Tramp. Drunkard. Published author. Each of these descriptions captures some part of William 'Roving Bill' Aspinwall's life, and yet none does him justice. Born one of 23 siblings, married 5 times, wounded fighting for the Union in one of the bloodiest battles of the American Civil War, kicked out of numerous jobs and soldiers' homes for drunkenness, and having spent decades wandering as penniless vagabond, Bill also kept up a 24-year correspondence with John James McCook, Professor of Modern Languages at Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut. In so doing Bill provided the earliest and best account of life on the road by an American hobo. Written between 1893 and 1917, Roving Bill Aspinwall: Dispatches from a Hobo in Post-Civil War America tells Bill's story entirely in his own words. Describing experiences on the road, the people he meets, his dalliances with women and his memories of the Civil War, the letters are a rich and unique correspondence. Having been physically and mentally scarred at the 1843 Battle of Champion Hill, Bill details his lifelong battle with booze. He also gives first-hand accounts of men thrown out of work during the economic Panic of 1893, of wandering around the country as an itinerant umbrella-mender, of working in factories, farms and even a circus, as well as his visit to the St. Louis World's Fair in 1903. Bill's words are the real voice of a nineteenth-century hobo.

We Can't Be Friends Aug 17 2021 The companion to The Dead Inside, "[An] unnerving and heartrending memoir" (Publishers Weekly) This is the story of my return to high school. This is the true story of how I didn't die. High school sucks for a lot of people. High school extra sucks when you believe, deep in your soul, that every kid in the school is out to get you. I wasn't popular before I got locked up in Straight Inc., the notorious "tough love" program for troubled teens. So it's not like I was walking around thinking everyone liked me. But when you're psychologically beaten for sixteen months, you start to absorb the lessons. The lessons in Straight were: You are evil. Your peers are evil. Everything is evil except Straight, Inc. Before long, you're a true believer. And when you're finally released, sent back into the world, you crave safety. Crave being back in the warehouse. And if you can't be there, you'd rather be dead.

You Make Me So Mad! Mar 12 2021 Anger. We all experience it, some more than others. When is it righteous and when is it not? How can we control our anger and not get caught in a maze of rage when things don't go our way? David Powlison takes a close look at anger to help us understand what it is and why we have it. He exposes three common misconceptions that leave us powerless to overcome anger. Using the illustration of a traffic jam, he probes the assumptions and cravings of the heart behind a typical angry response. In place of the false premises and futile consequences of ungodly anger, Powlison guides us to biblical truths and outcomes that honor God and teach us how to live.

Make Me Stay Nov 19 2021 Secret identities, second chances, drama, desire: It's all going down in Miami Beach in this tantalizing novel from the bestselling author of Pull Me Close, which was hailed by Aurora Rose Reynolds as "a heart-gripping story about . . . the power of love." April: Walking away from Matt Moreno was the hardest thing I've ever done. Lying to him was a close second, but for his safety, I had no other choice. I was undercover, working to put some nasty people behind bars. But when Matt nearly recognizes me on Lincoln Road a year later, all those very real feelings come rushing back. Now that my assignment's almost over, will he understand why I lied? Why I had to leave? Most important, can he ever forgive me? Matt: I was madly in love with June Simpson . . . or, at least, with the woman I thought was June. Then she just disappeared while my family's nightclub went through hell. And after months of searching, when I think I've finally found that sexy, raspy voice and those exquisite blue eyes, she slips away once more. Turns out, "June" is actually Detective April White. She's been playing me the whole time. And she's about to rock my world all over again. No cheating. No cliffhangers. And no dress code. Don't miss Sidney Halston's Panic series: PULL ME CLOSE | MAKE ME STAY | KISS ME BACK | WHAT ABOUT US And look for all of her hard-hitting MMA romances: AGAINST THE CAGE | FULL CONTACT | BELOW THE BELT | LAI D OUT | FIGHTING DIRTY | STACKED UP Praise for Sidney Halston's first Panic novel, Pull Me Close "A magnificent story full of deep emotion that will get you straight in the 'feels.' . . . Sidney Halston nailed it with this one."—New York Times bestselling author Sawyer Bennett "Pull Me Close is a heart-gripping story about one of the most beautiful things in the world: the power of love."—New York Times bestselling author Aurora Rose Reynolds "An intriguing tale of anxiety and depression so authentic that readers will feel as if they are in the story with the characters. The plot is fresh and tackles a fascinating topic. The relationship between the main characters is very intense and consuming. . . . A great read!"—RT Book Reviews Includes an excerpt from another Loveswept title.
